

HARDING IS SMOKED OUT BY SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION

Ends Message Indirectly Requesting Tennessee Republicans to Vote for Amendment.

CONFERENCE WITH SENATOR LODGE

Arriving Delegates Will Be Greeted by Nominee Today, but No Speeches Will Be Made Before Ceremonies on Notification.

MARIETTA, Ga., July 21.—The woman suffrage amendment tonight, leaving on the eve of his formal acceptance of the Republican nomination for President that he was ready to throw the weight of his influence to throw the amendment in time for all women to vote in November.

The announcement followed a call from the National Woman Suffrage Association, and took the form of a telegram to Mr. Lodge, Chairman of the Tennessee Suffrage Association.

Mr. Lodge, in his reply, said that he was exceedingly glad to learn of the telegram, and that he was in Tennessee seeking to consummate the ratification of equal suffrage amendment. If any of the Republican members of the Tennessee assembly should not be so minded, he would cordially request them to make an immediate favorable action.

Steady March on Woman's Party. The association's representatives made a march on the delegation of the National Woman's Party, which had been notified to demand at the formal ratification of the amendment.

What action the Women's Party delegation would take was uncertain tonight, but their engagement to see Senator Harding tomorrow stood.

The conference between Senator Harding and the party of women occupied only a few minutes.

His position on the league of nations colored with particular interest in the eyes of the delegation, which was the candidate at a two-day conference with Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, who will deliver the notification speech.

Afterward neither would make a statement.

By his close associates, the candidate is expected to lay down a policy of contributing to the ratification of the league issue in the hands of the two big parties. His advisers declare he will stick out with his strength against the league as well as a constructive suggestion of what should be done to secure peace and to maintain it.

Many Delegates Arrive. The acceptance speech will be delivered late in the afternoon, near the end of a program which begins at 7 o'clock in the morning when a local delegation will march to Senator Lodge's residence and the candidate will officiate at a flag-raising.

Delegations from other cities will be greeted by the nominee as they arrive, but he expects to make no address until the notification program begins at a park in the outskirts of the city at 12 o'clock.

More than thirty special trains are expected during the day and many thousands will motor in from nearby towns. Republicans and Democrats of Marion have joined to provide a grand reception and the city is decked out for the occasion as never before in its history.

Two of the delegations will be particularly welcome. One will be a quaquaguna brass band from California, in which Senator Harding once played a trombone, and the other a group of several hundred citizens of Dayton, the home town of the Senator's father.

The notification is to be held in a chauntia pavilion, where seats have been provided for about 1,000. Will H. Hays, the national chairman, will preside and there will be no address from the city at 12 o'clock.

Will Stick to Front Porch. The Associated Press, COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 21.—The first act of the Republican National Executive Committee in its session here today was to unanimously adopt a resolution urging Republican members of the Tennessee legislature to vote for ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment.

"There is such a strong Republican drift everywhere in the country that an aggressive campaign for ratification even in some of the normally Democratic States in the hope of capturing them is a waste of time," said National Chairman Hays declared, following the meeting.

Indicative of Republican sentiment in such States, he declared, was the presence here both of the National Committee and the State chairman of Tennessee and Maryland.

Mr. Hays voiced approval of Senator Harding's recent purchase of a farm in the State, saying there would be no change in the Senator's plans to conduct his campaign from his home.

"However, it has already been understood and is contemplated that there may be speeches on nationally important occasions at nationally important places," said Mr. Hays.

Neither will there be any change in the financial policy from that adopted in May, last year, Mr. Hays said.

High Cost of Flying Takes Nose Dive in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, July 21.—The high cost of flying went into a nose dive here when managers of the National Commercial Flying Club announced a 100 per cent reduction in the price of airplane rides.

Tourists to Southern California with an ambition to rise above the clouds and see the country from a new angle, will find the new price is $5 the ride per person.

Passenger flight prices will be continued to be reduced until they are lower than taxicab fares, C. S. Kiff, manager of one of the companies has declared.

and held many conferences with Charles Bryan and his associates. Delegates shouted that they were "not interested in Charles Bryan but in William Bryan."

An attempt to table the Calderwood motion tendering W. J. Bryan nomination was overwhelmingly defeated.

Speakers then charged that recent conference between delegates and Charles Bryan had been held in the apparent object of preventing Bryan's nomination on the ground that he had not won enough votes.

The fact that these conferences had not been made public seemed to anger many delegates and the speaker, after speech favoring the Calderwood resolution followed until it was adopted with only six dissenting votes out of the more than 200 delegates present.

This apparently was the spark which followed by delegates clamored to the floor, each urging that Bryan be nominated.

Places Bryan in Nomination. Miss Marie Brehm, of California, first woman to be elected permanent chairman of a national political convention, relinquished the chair and placed Bryan in nomination.

The delegates immediately went into the usual post-nomination uproar, with a roar of shouting and cheering. After fifteen minutes they finally realized that they had not yet actually nominated Mr. Bryan and proceeded to make him their nominee by acclamation. Tired and worn from the hot all-day session and the previous demonstration, they gave only a few seconds' applause.

The nomination was seconded by Nebraska, Florida, Missouri, Illinois, California, and Ohio. During the parade, Mr. Howard, a delegate from the audience, stepped forward and made a speech.

Eight delegates heard several speeches, including one by Rev. J. M. McQuinn, of the prohibition party. "Tomorrow the delegates expect to elect the new national committee, possibly name a vice-presidential candidate, hear a few more speeches and possibly adjourn by night."

In the meantime every effort was being made to get in touch with Bryan and learn his attitude toward the convention's action.

BALTIC NATIONS IN RACE FOR PORTS OF THEIR OWN

Ancient Hulkas Raised as Merchant Vessels in Support of Claims to Maritime Needs.

(By Universal Service.) KEVAL, July 21.—The little Baltic republics are losing no time in making for themselves a place on the sea. Ancient hulkas that long since have been provided for about 1,000 years are being caulked, and patched and painted in the Baltic shipyards and have been raised to the proud rank of merchant vessels.

The young republics of Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are joining a feverish race to see which shall build up the largest merchant marine in the shortest time with the little material on hand. As fast as the veteran vessels are rendered seaworthy and fitted with new spreads of sail they are rushed into service and carry the merchant flags of the new nations into half the ports of Europe.

Their principal cargoes consist of lumber and flax for British and Scandinavian ports, whence the little vessels return laden with foodstuffs and manufactured goods.

The Baltic coasting vessels are doing a rush business with the American Red Cross, which employs them practically to the exclusion of any other way transport for the shipment of relief supplies.

"DRY" LEAGUE HANDS OFF IN PRESIDENTIAL FIGHT

Whole Effort of Organization Will Be Devoted to Electing Congress Favoring Prohibition.

(By Universal Service.) WASHINGTON, July 21.—The Anti-Saloon League will concentrate its efforts in the coming campaign on the election of a "dry" Senate and House.

As between Governor Cox and Senator Harding, Democratic and Republican nominees for President, the league will take no stand.

The whole endeavor of the prohibition organization will be directed towards safeguarding the constitutional amendment and the Volstead enforcement act from attack through Congress.

This is the policy that will be adopted by the league's national executive committee here tomorrow, it was learned authoritatively from "dry" leaders who arrived today to attend the meeting.

In a nutshell, the task ahead of the Anti-Saloon League, according to these leaders, is to make certain that no law to repeal or modify the Volstead act is enacted and sent to the President for approval or veto.

League Has Avoided Split. It is realized that a partisan stand in favor of either the Democratic or Republican candidate inevitably would precipitate a split in the league along political lines, with the Mason and Dixon line as the dividing point.

Southern Democrats on the executive committee are among the rank and file of the league membership who are more fight Cox and support Harding than Republicans in other sections of the country would knife Harding and work for Cox.

It is highly significant in this connection that the executive committee, which is to decide on the policy to be pursued, is understood to be composed largely of Democrats, if not controlled by men affiliated with that party.

Reference to the statement of Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the league, that Cox's nomination would be "a menace to law and order," and would result in most of the prohibition advocates voting for Harding, brought forth the explanation that Mr. Wheeler issued the statement as an individual officer of the league and that it did not represent the official attitude of the organization.

Mr. Wheeler, it was learned, has found that engagement in the West will prevent his presence at tomorrow's meeting.

"Sam" Satisfied With "Jim." The attitude of Governor Cox on the prohibition question will be authoritatively submitted to the executive committee by Rev. Sam W. Small, Mr. Small, who has been on the firing line for the Anti-Saloon League since the early days of its battle against John Barleycorn, is a close personal friend of the Democratic candidate and has been in communication with him since his nomination. Governor Cox is "Jim" to the to replace the same as on January 1, 1920. This figure, as given by the street railway commission, shows the value of property used in the railway operation on an exclusive basis of property, not so used, amounting to $14,382,410.

You do not ask, but you may be interested in knowing that apportioning our capital on all the properties on the basis of gross earnings, we find the total amount of bonds and stocks at par which would be properly charged to the railways in Richmond would be $14,549,437.

Get No Returns on $8,000,000. In the statement of earnings and expenses which we enclose herewith, the interest charges are estimated at 5 per cent on less than $8,000,000, and these statements show the railway is now earning 5 per cent on this sum alone, so that more than $8,000,000 of invested capital on any basis on which the matter can be figured is not being returned to the taxpayers at the rate of fares now in effect.

(Signed) THOMAS S. WHEELWRIGHT, Mr. Wheelwright's letter was forwarded to Council by Mr. Morton, but it was filed unopened by them because of the final vote on the fare matter. Amendment was made of the ordinance allowing the 6-cent fare, but to allow free engines and city vehicles to cross viaducts free of charge.

Memorial Library Vote. With only the dissenting votes of President L. Lee Peters, who was not present at the time and claims the passage of the ordinance was illegal, Jacob Umlauf and William E. Sullivan, former chairman of the Memorial Library Association, were secured to the memorial library vote.

By the Council, making it a law. At the time, Fred H. Powell, of the Ward, vice-president, being in the Council, refused to sign the ordinance, and the ordinance was passed after the president had ruled that it could not be passed at the same meeting at which it was taken up.

President Peters stated last night after the Council adjourned that he would go to the City Attorney for a written opinion today demanding to know whether or not his decision was correct. He was of the opinion last night that the ordinance will have come back to the Council before it can be legal.

Amendment to the Mills ordinance, going for the matter to be tabled indefinitely, and the City Attorney directed to draw up a proper ordinance which should be submitted to the people for a referendum vote on the subject, was defeated by the Council. The amendment was sponsored by President Peters, who ferred on its personnel with the chairman and E. H. Moore, the Governor's late manager.

Notification dates for Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the vice-presidential nominee, were virtually settled for August 7 and 5, respectively, and it was announced that both candidates would start immediately the tour in the Central and Eastern States and Mr. Roosevelt in the West.

Location of campaign headquarters also was among organization details considered. Governor Cox said he had heard only New York, Chicago and San Francisco discussed for headquarters cities.

With preliminary organization affairs in hand, Chairman White planned to spend tomorrow at Marietta, Ohio, his home, and then a few days with his family, which is summering at Edgartown, Mass. Next Wednesday he planned to meet Homer S. Cummings, former chairman of New York headquarters, spend the following day at Washington headquarters, and return here.

Henry, Cheering Reports. Political surveys of several States were had today by Governor Cox with State leaders. He discussed the Maine situation in detail with Mrs. G. M. Pattagall, that State's national committeewoman.

"She called attention to the fact," said Governor Cox, "that Maine went Republican by only 2,000 in 1918, when there was a strong Republican trend. The Massachusetts field was discussed by the Governor with Edward W. Quinn, the State's national committeeman, who was said to have reported that the State was leaning toward the Democrats."

To inquiry into the Kentucky situation, Governor Cox today telegraphed Senator Beckham of Kentucky, to come here soon for consultation.

Failing speedy intervention, Russia, in the opinion of all well-informed observers here, will inevitably overrun not only Poland and East Prussia, but will menace the whole of Europe, including Berlin.
